

UNITY OF THE SPIRIT

474

from Ephesians 4:1-6; Philippians 2:1-5 (NIV)

WORSHIP LEADER or SOLO DRAMATIST

As a prisoner for the Lord, then,
I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.
Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.
Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when you were called—
One Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all,
who is over all and through all and in all.
If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ,
if any comfort from His love, if any fellowship with the Spirit,
if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded,
having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose.
Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit,
but in humility consider others better than yourselves.
Each of you should look not only to your own interests,
but also to the interests of others.
Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus.

But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; as for tongues they will cease;
whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.

And now abide faith, hope, love, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.
