

205. ALTHOUGH I NOW AM FAR FROM HOME

AKO SAM DALEK' OD DOMA

1. { Al - though I now am far from home, And here from place to My heart's de - sires and yearn - ings lie, in my dear Fa - ther's place still roam, } { Home, home, for I'm not hap - py here In home on high! } { For here as scoff - ing foes in - crease, I

this cold world, so dark and drear, in this cold world so dark and drear, } long the more for home and peace, I long the more for home and peace. }

2. Here I have no abiding place,
Therefore my heart would see God's face,
Who, from this world by tears oppressed,
Will take me to that place of rest!
O then be patient, heart of mine,
Lest yearning overmuch ye pine,
Lest yearning overmuch ye pine.
Be still and wait on God until
He takes thee home,-home-as He will!
He takes thee home,-home-as He will!
