

10. If thus thou put thy will behind thee And do whatever wills thy Lord;
Then thou in suff'ring, peace wilt find thee, And Jesus' grace is thy reward.

11. With Jesus bear all thou must suffer, And fear the cross of life no more;
For when thy journey here is over, The cross will open heaven's door!

172

O Faithful Be!

1. O faith-ful be! So shalt thine end be glo-rious; God will up -
2. O faith-ful be! For crowns a-bove a - wait them As a re -
3. O faith-ful be! If guard we are not keep - ing All is in hold, and thou shalt be vic - to - rious! Though here the strug-gle ward with which the Lord shall greet them, Who here on earth un - vain, the foe is nev - er sleep - ing! Un - less we faith - ful may be long and hard, Thy faith-ful-ness is hon-or to the Lord!

til their fi-nal breath Were ev - er faith-ful, e - ven un - to death.
at our post re - main, All for-mer vic-tories will have been in vain!

4. O faithful be!
Who here in every trial
Will show his worth—his praise meets no denial;
Were there no test, the strong could not be known,
Nor weak, nor faithful, nor those faithless grown.

5. O faithful Lord,
As Thou art love revealing
Anew to us each day and faithful dealing,
Grant that from day to day we all may be More faithful, yea, more faithful unto Thee!