

Abide, O Lord and Savior

(121, 134, 138)

1. A - bide, O Lord and Sav - ior, A - mong us with Thy grace,
 2. A - bide, O blest Re - deem - er, And guide us with Thy Word,
 3. A - bide with us in splen - dor, Thou pure and heav'nly Light;

That Sa - tan harm us nev - er, Nor we to him give place.
 That we may now and ev - er En - joy Thy good-ness, Lord.
 Gird us with truth, sur - ren - der Us not to er - ror's night.

4. Abide with Thy rich blessing, Nor may it ever cease;
 The grace we are possessing, O Lord, in us increase!

5. Abide as our Protector, Thou Hero in the fray;
 Let Satan not be victor, And keep the world at bay!

6. Abide with us forever And grant us steadfastness;
 We pray Thee, Lord, deliver Our hearts from all distress!

Come, Pilgrims, Join in Singing

(121, 134, 138)

1. Come, pilgrims, join in sing - ing Your great Re - deem - er's praise,
 2. A Shep-herd, true for - ev - er, A Rock and Shield is He;

3. His holy Word that feeds us
Is pure, without alloy;
Where'er our journey leads us,
It gives us strength and joy.

4. It shows to us the treasure
That God prepares for us,
Grants heart and spirit pleasure
And cheers and comforts thus.

5. Thanks from the heart are welling,
Because new life is giv'n;
The Word, all doubt dispelling,
Turns thoughts to God and heav'n.

6. It is our source of gladness
While here our journey lies;
It sweetens all our sadness
With comfort from the skies.

7. When anything oppresses,
We turn to our dear Friend,
And He in our distresses
The needed help doth send.

8. In mercy He looks downward
On us and shows the way;
We gladly journey onward
To heaven day by day.

9. Let us go on in gladness
Upon our way so blest,
For after strife and sadness
We shall attain our rest!
